FOREWORD

ISO (the International Organization for Standardization) is a worldwide federation of national standards institutes (ISO Member Bodies). The work of developing International Standards is carried out through ISO Technical Committees. Every Member Body interested in a subject for which a Technical Committee has been set up has the right to be represented on that Committee. International organizations, governmental and non-governmental, in liaison with ISO, also take part in the work.

Draft International Standards adopted by the Technical Committees are circulated to the Member Bodies for approval before their acceptance as International Standards by the ISO Council.

International Standard ISO 2644, which incorporates Addendum 1, was drawn up by Technical Committee ISO/TC 67, Materials and equipment for petroleum and natural gas industries, and circulated to the Member Bodies in May 1972. Addendum 1 was circulated to the Member Bodies in January 1973.

This International Standard has been approved by the Member Bodies of the following countries :

Belgium	Hungary	Spain
Brazil	India	Switzerland
Czechoslovakia	Italy	Thailand
Egypt, Arab Rep. of	Japan	Turkey
