FOREWORD

ISO (the International Organization for Standardization) is a worldwide federation of national standards institutes (ISO member bodies). The work of developing International Standards is carried out through ISO technical committees. Every member body interested in a subject for which a technical committee has been set up has the right to be represented on that committee. International organizations, governmental and non-governmental, in liaison with ISO, also take part in the work.

Draft International Standards adopted by the technical committees are circulated to the member bodies for approval before their acceptance as International Standards by the ISO Council.

Prior to 1972, the results of the work of the technical committees were published as ISO recommendations; these documents are now in the process of being transformed into International Standards. As part of this process, Technical Committee ISO/TC 81 has reviewed ISO Recommendations R 765 and 1105 and found them technically suitable for transformation. This International Standard, which results from the merging into one single document of ISO Recommendations R 765 - 1968 and 1105 - 1969, therefore replaces them, and Amendment 1 to ISO/R 1105. It is technically identical with these documents.

ISO Recommendation R 765 was approved by the member bodies of the following countries:

Australia	Finland	Sweden
Belgium	France	Switzerland
Brazil	Germany	Turkey
Canada	India	United Kingdom
Chile	Israel	U.S.S.R.
Columbia	Mexico	Yugoslavia
Czechoslovakia	Netherlands
Denmark	Portugal

The member body of the following country expressed disapproval of the recommendation on technical grounds:

South Africa, Rep. of *

* Subsequently, this member body approved the recommendation.

ISO Recommendation R 1105 was approved by the member bodies of the following countries:

Australia	Germany	South Africa, Rep. of
Austria	Greece	Sweden
Belgium	India	Switzerland
Brazil	Iran	Thailand
Canada	Ireland	United Kingdom
Chile	Israel	U.S.A.
Czechoslovakia	Italy	U.S.S.R.
Denmark	Korea, Rep. of	Yugoslavia
France	Portugal

No member body expressed disapproval of the recommendation.

No member body disapproved the transformation of ISO/R 765 and 1105 into International Standards.
