architecture

ISO/IEC 8613-8:1994 — Information technology – Open Document Architecture (ODA) and Interchange Format: Geometric graphics content architecture

We are pleased to enclose the new editions of the above standard(s).

At the request of JTC 1, the previous editions of these standards will continue to be listed in the ISO Catalogue and to be made available because implementors need a period of time to migrate from one version of the specification to the new version. Additionally, the use of International Standards by International Standards Profiles, ISP, has made it mandatory for the referenced parts of this International Standard to remain available.

These considerations may also apply to your national standards directly implementing the above standard(s).

Yours faithfully,

Lawrence D. Eicher
Secretary-General
